

WHAT WE DO

The Quincy Family Resource Center (QFRC) helps families to access and navigate resources in their local community.

The QFRC provides on-site and virtual programs, services, and activities to benefit families.

In addition we collaborate with numerous agencies, community organizations, town and city governments, school systems, Department of Children and Families, Juvenile Probation, and civic and religious organizations.

Need assistance finding resources in your community?
Need help filling out applications?

Services We Offer

The Quincy Family Resource Center works with caregivers, youth of all ages, extended family members, and any member of the community seeking support.

Our staff works with families to assess needs and connect them to appropriate supports and services.

QFRC Partnerships

We work in close partnership with all families and caregivers, kinship placement, grandparents raising grandchildren, LGBTQ+, behavioral health care providers, pediatric offices and other medical providers, schools, the juvenile court system, and DCF among others.

All services at the QFRC are free of charge and insurance is not needed.

Assessment and Family Support Planning

- Conducted by a Licensed Clinician and our Family Partner
- Review areas of need and build a Family Support Plan based on recommendations and family input

Resources and Referrals

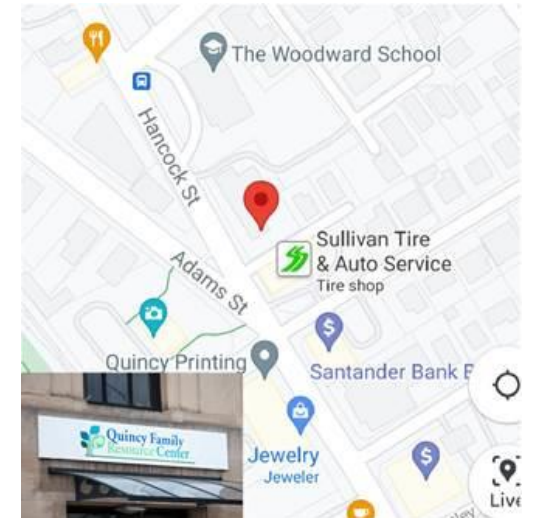

- Connect families in need with community based, behavioral health services within their own community
- Assist families & providers in identifying community resources & services that would best meet the specific needs of each family (assistance can be provided in-person or virtually, and by appointment or walk-in)

Groups and Events

- Caregiver & youth groups to address specific concerns such as school refusal, positive decision making, behavioral health, exploitation of children, etc.
- Caregiver Education & Support groups such as: Parenting Education, Grandparents Raising Grandchildren, Raising LGBTQ+ Youth (child supervision and food are provided during caregiver groups free of charge)
- Youth Support, Social, & Activity groups such as: LGBTQ+ Teens, Life Skills, Wellness
